Welcome to Beech Creek Wesleyan. It is a privilege to welcome each one today. We are grateful that you have joined us for Sunday School and Worship today!

Please sign in on the Fellowship folder when it is passed to you. Please indicate prayer requests for the prayer list on the Fellowship folder as well.

Join us this evening for an informal time of praise and sharing.

Thank you to Mary Packer and Becky Falls for coordinating the reception this morning. Thank you to each one that provided cookies and cake for this event.

Thank you to each one that participated in the closing service at the old Church on Wednesday evening. It was incredible to see the church of God on the move caring the items for worship as we marched to the new Church.

Thank you to each one that assisted in moving the church this past week.

"To [God] be glory both now and forever."

--2 Peter 3: 18

Heaven will be full of the ceaseless praises of Jesus. Throughout eternity your unceasing thought will be, "to Him be glory." Isn't He a king forever? Isn't He the King of kings, the Lord of lords, and the everlasting Father? Then "To Him be the glory forever" and ever. God's praises will never come to an end. The glory of the cross must never be eclipsed; the luster of the resurrected grave must never be dimmed.

If you are a Christian, then you should be looking forward to the time when you will join the heavenly saints in ascribing glory to Jesus. But, are you glorifying Him now? The apostle's words are, "To Him be glory both NOW and forever." Won't you make this your daily prayer? "Lord, help me to glorify You! When I am poor, help me to glorify You by contentment; When I am sick, help me to give You honor by being patient; With my wealth help me to worship You by spending it for You; I have a heart to feel, Lord; let that heart feel no love but Yours and glow with no flame but affection for You; I can think, Lord, so help me to think of You and for You.

You have put me in this world for something, Lord; please show me what that is, and help me to work out my life-purpose; I can not do much, but as the widow put her "two cents" into the offering (which was all she had) so, Lord, I cast myself into Your treasury; I am all Yours; take me, and enable me to glorify You now in all that I say and do and with all that I have." Announcements

We are so excited to welcome you to the First service at the New Beech Creek Wesleyan Worship center. This project has been accomplished by the sacrifice, commitment and faithfulness of many, but most of all it has been accomplished by the hand of Almighty God. This building stands as a testimony to God's Faithfulness.

We invite you to join us for a cookie and cake reception in the Lobby following the Worship Service this morning.

The Flags in the sanctuary have been donated by Woodman of the World Insurance Company. Thank you to Larry Butler and the Woodman of the World for this wonderful gift.

A couple of quest will be with us this morning from Summit Hill Wesleyan Church to tell us about their upcoming Ladies Retreat. They will be available in the lobby following the service to answer any questions.

The Memorial plaque to be displayed in the lobby is not quite ready yet. We look forward to this memorial remembering the many people whom memorial contributions have been received for. If you would like to make a memorial contribution giving the name of a loved one to be placed on the Memorial plaque, please see Pastor Alan.

There will be a men's fellowship breakfast this Saturday at 8:00 am at the Clintondale United Methodist Church. An offering will be received.

A sheet is posted for anyone interested in volunteering for on-going projects at the Clinton County Homeless Shelter. Please list your email address as we are mostly notified at the last moment asking for volunteers to help with projects, i.e. painting, cleaning, repairs, etc. The opening of the shelter is projected for this summer. Any questions see Tina Mauck.

A sheet is posted on the bulletin board for all those interested in providing a snack for 3-G Creed. Any questions see Lorie Eckenroad.

Wolfgang candy orders are due next Sunday, February 26th. Please give your completed order forms to Mike or Kathie English.

A fill-in nursery helper is needed for Sunday School. Also, a leader is needed second week of every month for Jr. Church. If you have questions or are interested, please see Mike or Kathie English.
